Michael York

Director: Franco Zeffirelli

Awards: Academy Award Best Cinematography, Best Costume

Directed by Franco Zeffirelli, this is the definitive film of this classic Shakespeare tragedy. As the title characters, fifteen-year-old Olivia Hussey and seventeen-year-old Leonard Whiting bring a touching innocence to their roles. The exquisite cinematography and haunting score are also key elements of the film. Supporting characters, especially Milo O'Shea and Michael York, are solid throughout. The story remains a powerful, but romantic, idealization of youth that strikes a deep chord with many viewers. (1968, 2 hours 18 minutes)
